dt 1-4-1949 from the Registrar University of Mysore requiring sanction to the recommendation of the university board to the appointment of Sri V. Rajhavendra Rao as Professor of History in the Maharajas College Mysore.

With the retirement of Dr. K.V.V. Sastry, the post of Professor of History Maharajas College has become vacant. The vacancy was advertised with reference to the advertisement eleven applications as stated have been received. A statement showing the names of the applicants has been sent by the Registrar out of these applications the standing committee for appointments, at a meeting held on 30-10-48, after elimination of three that were considered unfit

2 The University Council after considering the recommendation of the standing committee for appointments, at a meeting of the University Council, held on 17-1-49. have received recommending Sri V. Raghavendra Rao [2(4)] for the appointment as Professor of History At the time of recommendations of the University Council Sri V. Raghavendra Rao was a lecturer in History and has since been promoted as Asst Professor of History. From the application of Sri V. R. Raghavendra it is seen that he has not given particulars of his age, experience in the teaching line etc. This information perhaps will be available in the Edn Dept. in the file relating to the appointment of Sri V. R. Raghavendra Rao as Asst Professor (Unn 1-17-29) which has not been sent to Records (Arguments for the file is Records put up)

3) The appointment of Sri V. Raghavendra Rao is for orders

CKD

4) No reasons have been given in the resolution of the University Council for not accepting the recommendation of the Standing Committee for appointments which is supported by the Vice-Chancellor. In the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor ~~according~~

Gopalachari is best suited for the post of Professor of History, and combines in himself ability in teaching, in administration and in conduct of research work.

5) This is Council matter.

16.4.49. 6) The question relates the posting of an officer as Prof. of History. The vacancy was advertised calling for applications In response to the advertisement eleven applications were received. A standing committee consisting of the undermentioned gentlemen was appointed to consider the applications:-

(1) The Vice-Chancellor (Chairman)

(2) Sri T. Balakrishna Nair, Prof. of History & Politics, Presidency College, Madras

(3) Khan Bahadur Janab S. Mohamed Imam

(4) Dr. M.V. Govinda Swamy, Principal, Mah. College

(5) Registrar (Secretary)

It is stated that the above committee by a majority came to the conclusion that that Dr K. Gopalachari was the best qualified candidate and that he may be recommended for appointment as Professor of History. The reasons for proposing Dr Gopalachari have also been given. Dr M.V. Govindaswamy, one of the members of this committee, brought to the notice of the committee the case of Sri S. Srikanta Sastry who possesses considerable reputation as a research scholar and who has published some valuable works on Indian History. But the committee felt that his deafness and his lack of administrative experience were drawbacks which might not fit him for the post.

7. When the question came up before the University Council, it resolved that Sri V. Raghavendra Rao, Asst Professor, may be appointed Professor of History.

8. Dr Gopalachari is an M.A, First class I rank and Ph.D. of the Madras university whereas Sri Raghavendra Rao is an M.A. I class of the Calcutta university and Cundy Medalist in B.A.,. While the former has teaching experience of over 18 years, the latter has put in a service of more than 30 years and possesses longer teaching experience. Dr K Gopalachari is 39 years old and Sri Raghavendra Rao must perhaps be very old as he has put in a service of more than 30 years of service. Dr Gopalachari is holding the post of Professor of history in the Baroda Govt. service and is in receipt of a pay of Rs 350/- in the grade of Rs 350-25-500 and Sri Raghavendra Rao is an Asst. Professor drawing a pay of Rs 250/- in the grade of Rs 250-25/2-350. Dr Gopalachari possesses administrative experience as he is head of the History Deptt. in the M.N. College, Baroda from 1947. But Sri Raghavendra Rao has been in charge of the Deptt. of History ever since the retirement of Dr K.N. Venkata-subba Sastry ic. for about a year. The thesis of Dr Gopalachari on "Early History of the Andhra Country" is regarded as standard work on the subject and Sri Raghavendra Rao has published two books — (1) Indo-Muslim culture and (2) History of Vijayanagar which is in Kannada. Sri Raghavendra Rao was a member of the Historical Records Commission of India, in 1940.

9. Dr Gopalachari has possesses high academic qualifications and ~~possesses~~ administrative experience. Sri Raghavendra Rao has longer teaching experience than Dr Gopalachari. The committee for appointment have given reasons for recommending Dr Gopalachari. Whereas no reasons are assigned by the University Council for recommending Sri Raghavendra Rao for the post of Professor Sri Raghavendra Rao was recently promoted as Asst. Professor i.e. in January 1949 and he ~~has~~ might have only a few years of service before him to reach the age of superannuation.

10) In the above circumstances Dr K. Gopalachari appears to be best suited for the post of Professor of History and he may perhaps be appointed Professor of History in preference to Sri Raghavendra Rao.

11) The recommendation of the University is to appoint the candidate as Professor on Rs 400- p.m. the grade of Rs 400-25-700 and it is silent as regards the period of probation prescribed in the advertisement. It may perhaps be made clear that the selected candidate will be on probation for 2 years.

13) Dr K. Gopalachari may be appointed as Professor of History ~~pending~~ pending probation fixed at two years. It is seen from his application that his Scholastic Career is very good & that he has considerable teaching & administrative experience.

It was pointed out at the meeting by the Vice-Chancellor that since a Professorship in the Mysore University demands ability in teaching, in administration and in the conduct of research work and since Dr. Gopalachari combines in himself all these three qualifications, he is best suited for the post.

He comes of a good and respectable family and so far as known to me he bears excellent moral character. I have no doubt that this energetic young man with a commanding personality would prove a very successful Administrative officer under Government and I strongly recommend him accordingly.

Mr. K. Gopalachari joined the department in 1934-35. When he came he had already to his credit a first class ~~Honours~~ M.A degree and some years of Collegiate teaching experience. He thus came to us with a much mature mind than many other students. He has since worked on a difficult subject, 'The Early History of the Andhra Country'. In the course of his work he has raised and discussed with me nice questions of epigraphy and numismatics and I have formed a high estimate of the technical equipment he has acquired since he joined the department. He has a sound working knowledge of Prakrit and Sanskrit. He undertook a short archaeological tour of parts of the Bombay Presidency and made excellent use of the opportunity he then got. His thesis easily fetched the Ph.D. for him. I am sure that his thesis when published will be seen to constitute a decided advance in our knowledge of the Early History of the Deccan. He has pleasant manners and bears an excellent character.

I have also published "Proto-Indic Religion" (1941) and "Iconography of Sri Vidyarnava Tantra" (1943). My Kannada work "Bharatiya Samskrti" has been included for publication in the University Kannada Series. The reviews and opinions of scholars on the above publications have been attached.

My publications show that I possess a knowledge of the following languages - ancient and modern - indispensable for research :-

Samskrit (Vedic and Classical)	Chinese
Pali and Prakrit	Sumerian
Kannada	Egyptian
Telugu	Babylonian
Tamil	Hittite
Hindi	French
Greek	German
Latin

I am the only scholar from Mysore requested to contribute to the National History of India by Indian Historians, sponsored by Dr. Rajendra Prasad, Dr. R.C. Majumdar, G.D. Birla, K.M. Munshi and Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan. I have contributed special chapters on the "Aryan Problem" to the first volume and on Kannada Language and Literature to Vols. VIII, IX and X.

I have written prefaces and introductions along with Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, K.M. Munshi, Bhulabhai Desai, Radha-Krishnan, Dr. Rajendra Prasad, Sarojini Naidu, to the publications of my pupil Y.G. Krishnamurthy - "Constituent Assembly and Indian Federation", Independent India and New World Order", "Haripur Congress Souvenir", "The Indian States and Federal Plan", etc. My help and guidance have been acknowledged by many many research workers of India, Europe and America in their publications, like Prof. Mugali's Heritage of Karnataka, etc.

I have attended and contributed to the Proceedings of the All India Oriental Conference, the Indian History Congress, The Historical Records Commission, Congress of Orientalists, the Deccan Oriental Conference, etc. I have guided the research work of the students of the Universities of Mysore, Bombay, Benares, etc.

I submit that, in view of the importance of Karnataka History, particularly in the linguistic province of Karnataka and the lead hitherto taken by the Mysore University, the Oriental Research Institute and the Archaeological Department of Mysore in the work of publishing Kannada and Samskrit works during the past half a century, and further, in view of the proposal to make Kannada the medium of instruction in the University, it is urgently necessary to have standard text-books on all branches of History from the Intermediate to the M.A Examinations. I have been teaching in Kannada the history of Karnataka and Kannada culture for the past eighteen years to the Kannada Honours classes and published articles and works in Kannada. I have prepared ready for publication the second and third volumes of the "Sources of Karnataka History", Proto-Indic and Tantric Hieroglyphs, the history of Karnataka in three volumes, the histories of Greece and Rome and India suitable for the University classes, works on Indian culture, archaeology, religions of Karnataka and Karnataka music and culture.

As regards my character and ability and capacity for research, I have attached copies of testimonials and opinions of scholars of repute like Dewan Bahadur Dr. S. Krishnaswami Aiyangar, Rao Bahadur K.V. Rangaswami Iyengar, Prof. P.K. Gode, Dr. N.N. Law, Sri K.M. Munshi, Dr. R.C. Majumdar, Sir Mirza M. Ismail, Dr. Nagaraja Sarma, Sri S. Srikantayya, Rao Bahadur C. Hayavadana Rao, the Librarian of the United States Congress, Washington, Dr. Jarl Charpentier of Upsala (Leyden), Dr. Hrozny of Czechoslovakia, etc., etc., besides reviews in the research Journals.

I submit

I submit that, in view of the above qualifications, an opportunity would be given to me to serve the University of Mysore and Karnataka Language and culture to the best of my ability.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Yours faithfully,

S. SriKanta Sastri

Lecturer in History.

TESTIMONIALS AND REVIEWS.

"PROTO-INDIC RELIGION"

Dewan Bahadur S. Krishnaswami Iyengar, University Professor, Madras and Mysore (Retd). Letter of 14th March 1943 and Journal of Indian History, Dec. 1942, P. 250.

"One problem of the utmost importance was the study from the point of view of religion. This line of study was wanting hitherto and we are pleased indeed to note that Mr. Sastri has begun this important line of research. Mr. Sastri seems to be very well qualified for attempting this task systematically and the work before us gives evidence of his qualifications for attempting this task. We commend the work of Mr. Sastri as the first effort on a very important line of investigation.

I am very favourably impressed with your effort in the direction of expounding several of the symbols, etc., found in Mohenjo Daro and Harappa seals".

Rao Bahadur K.V. Rangaswami Iyengar, Former Pro-Chancellor, Benares University, and Professor of Madras and Travancore Universities, etc. (Q.J.M.S, July 1944, P. 49).

"He has attacked the problem with a remarkable knowledge not only of Vedic literature and its exegesis but of the history and archaeology of Mohenjo Daro and on Sumerian, Hittite and allied people. In dealing with this complex problem, he has shown a high degree of critical and constructive power and his arguments are well sustained by adequate data, the collection of which postulates wide and intensive study. Few Doctorate Theses accepted in our Universities in India or Great NBritain reach the level of erudition and critical scholarship. In the dearth of material and in the present state of mid-Asiatic studies, caution is enjoined in accepting any conclusion, but every attempt made to solve with adequate data with an open scientific mind is worthy of welcome".

Prof. V. Rangacharya, University of Madras. (Hindu, 7-3-1943).

"Mr. Srikanta Sastri, who is already known to students of History by his "Sources of Karnataka History" has, in this treatise, analysed the nature and affinities of the religion of the Proto-Indic people. His research is penetrating and detailed and his conclusions cannot be set aside".

Dr. S.C. Sirkar. (Journal of Behar and Orissa Research Society, 1943).

"Credit is due to the author that he has been able to collect from various sources the useful facts in support of his views. Further researches on the same lines will be greatly welcome".

The Madras Mail. 7-3-1943.

"Prof. Srikanta Sastriar's book contains a very learned Samskritic and anthropological study of the nature of Proto-Indic Religion. Even for specialists, it is perhaps too learned. . . . . a mass of detailed learning. This kind of careful, solid, objective study is a credit to Indian Scholarship".

New Review. November 1943.

"It is a credit to the critical sense and scientific honesty of the author".

Rao

Rao Bahadur C. Hayavadana Rao. (Mysore Economic Journal, July 1943).

"This is a close study of a difficult subject. He writes persuasively and his study requires the earnest attention of all scholars interested in the great but complex subject".

Journalox of Indian History (August 1945, P. 87).

"It is with pleasure that we know that a competent Samskrt scholar like Mr. Srikantha Sastri of the Mysore University should have taken on himself a systematic study of the archaeological finds with a view to their Vedic affiliation. Mr. Sastri arrives at very important conclusions quite subversive of the current notions on the matter, supporting his conclusions by even comparative studies of the archaeological finds of the West made in modern times. We are indeed very grateful to find that Mr. Sastri has carried on his investigation into this comparatively new and, we should rather say, unfamiliar subject to purpose and has arrived at conclusions which, on the face of it, are startling. We congratulate Mr. Sastri on what he has done and trust that he will carry on the study further and more completely".

"ICONOGRAPHY OF SRI VIDYARNAVA TANTRA."

Dr. V. Raghavan. (Hindu, Jan 28, 1945).

"The students of Iconography in general and of Sakta Iconography in particular will find this useful".

Dr. R. Nagaraja Sarma. (Indian Express, Feb 5, 1945).

"The book would be found highly interesting by the students of the special branch of Indian Occultism represented by the extensive mass of Tantrik literature. Mr. Sastri has discussed at fairly full length the problems of chronology and authorship, which chronologists would find thought-provoking. Mr. Sastri has to be congratulated on this excellent piece of research".

Prabuddha Bharata. (May 1945, P. 136).

"This small work, the result of detailed research by a scholar of repute, will serve as an excellent guide to students of Indian Iconography in making a comparative study of the various Tantrik texts"

"SOURCES OF KARNATAKA HISTORY", (Vol I).

Sir Mirza M. Ismail, Dewan of Mysore. (Letter to Vice Chancellor, University of Mysore, 1940).

"I congratulate the author and the University on the publication of this volume which will be found useful by scholars".

Dr. R.C. Majumdar, Vice Chancellor, University of Dacca, latter of 4th Feb 1941).

"It is a very useful and interesting work containing extracts from all the relevent sources of information about the history of Karnataka. I am sure it will prove very useful to the students of Karnataka History and will facilitate research in the subject. The extracts are carefully selected and critically edited".

Libratian,

Librarian, Library of the U.S. Congress, Washington, March 7, 1941.

"The Library of the Congress, the National Library of the United States, has a special need for the publication "Sources of Karnataka History".

Dr. A.N. Upadhye, New Indian Antiquary, March 1941.

"It is a praiseworthy effort on the part of the University of Mysore that it has inaugurated a Historical Series in which the sources of Karnataka History, Vol. I, is edited by Prof. Sastri. It is Mysore that has given the world of scholars the grand volumes of the Epigraphia Carnatica and there could not have been a better body than the University of Mysore to publish the Sources of Karnataka History. This handy volume is a precious possession for the students of Karnataka history. We sincerely thank Prof. Sastri for his patient labour on the first Volume and eagerly await the publication of subsequent volumes".

Dr. D.C. Sircar, Indian Historical Quarterly, March 1941.

"Mr. Sastri has worked hard in compiling this book and his plan is praiseworthy. Such source-books will be welcomed by students of history. The book may be recommended to all students of South Indian history for the vast wealth of material collected by Mr. Sastri".

Prof. P.K. Gode, Oriental Literary Digest, May-June 1941.

"These sources induce sobriety of judgment in the minds of enthusiastic investigators and prevent futile controversies of the old type which consisted of mere assertion and denial without bringing an iota of fact as a contribution to the field of controversy. We congratulate Prof. Sastri and the Mysore University on this nice and scholarly source-book bearing on Karnataka History".

Sri R.R. Divakar, Modern Review, Jan 1941.

"The Mysore University has been responsible for the publication of a number of Kannada, Sanskrit and English works so far and this volume certainly adds to its credit as a progressive University. It must have cost the author very hard labour and much cogitation, since today the material for Karnataka history has been scattered in poems, inscriptions, copper plates, manuscripts on palm-leaf and what not. The author has written a very useful and scholarly introduction to the book which is indispensable to scholars and very interesting to the general reader. It is sure to arouse great interest among scholars even outside Karnataka".

Dr. S.C. Sircar, Journal of Bihar and Orissa Research Society, Vol. 26, P. 260.

"We welcome this publication as a worthy attempt which will show the way to many scholars and which will be eminently useful to all interested in South Indian studies".

The Madras Mail, September 15, 1940.

"It is a very useful publication and puts together matter matter which has to be gleaned from a large number of, at times even ponderous volumes of special and technical character".

Dr.

Dr. B.A. Saletore, Kannada Sahitya Parishat Patrika, 1941.

"The work under review is a very diligent source-book which cannot but be useful to students of Karnataka and South India History. The sources are treated by him with much care and industry".

Sri S. Srikantayya, Sri Krishnarajendra Memorial Volume, Q.J.M.S, 1941

"Mr. Sastri is a scholar of the proper type for a work of this kind which involves care and diligent research in collecting, editing and elucidating the numerous records, including the literature of the Kannada Districts, which began nearly half a century ago but which, for lack of systematic effort, was lying idle. Mr. R. Narasimhachar's useful history of Kannada literature needed a separate work but left yet a desiderata for students of Karnataka History".

Dr. M.N. Banerji, Man in India, Jan-March 1942, P. 82.

"We congratulate the author on the production of this excellent volume which we hope will prove highly useful to scholars interested in the study of Karnataka history and culture".

Dr. A.N. Upadhye, President, XI Oriental Conference, Prakrit-Pali Section.

"The admirable collection, 'Sources of Karnataka History', compiled by Prof. Sastri shows that even in piecing together the information of Indian History partly or as a whole, the Prasastis of Jaina authors form a valuable source".

4th August 1948.

I have known Mr.V.Raghavendra Rao for about 3 decades first as my student at the Mysore University, then as a teacher and afterwards as a writer. I consider him as one of the most competant pupils, I have taught in my long life as a teacher. He has acquired a rare linguistic equipment necessary for original investigations in History. Besides his knowledge of the South Indian languages he is well versed in Sanskrit, Marathi and Hindi. By his enthusiasm for knowledge and research and by his general idealistic outlook upon life he is singularly qualified to be a teacher of youth in a responsible capacity at a University. I have a very great regard for his character and total devotion to duty coupled with his academic attainments.

Dear Mr. Subrahmanyam,

I thank you very much for sending me your booklet on a Universal Democratic Federation, which I have read with great interest. The World Movement for World Federal Government has up to now refrained from making detailed proposals for a federal world constitution and would possibly not be in accord with every single detail in your booklet. Nevertheless, I find in it principles that are in full agreement with the program of the World Movement, and therefore hope that a collaboration between you and the World Movement will be possible.

Mr. P.G. Sathyagirinathan was a member of the Honours Class in History (final year) last year and he has just passed the University Examination. I had several opportunities during the year of judging his ability and character, and as a result I have formed a very favourable opinion of him. His ability is not of the kind to which an examination does full justice, because he has a fresh mind and an original outlook. He has decided to become a teacher - and I think he has decided rightly. He has qualities which will make him, as far as I am able to tell, an exceptionally good teacher. I must not omit to mention that his influence on his fellow-students both in the class room and outside has been entirely for good.

Prof. M.A. Candeth (Head of the Department of History, Presidency College, Madras)

Mr. P.G.Sathyagirinathan was a student of the Presidency College for the five years 1916-21. He was one of those selected for admission to the Honours Course. He took his Hons. degree in 1921 and his M.A. in 1923. His class record was extremely satisfactory. His work showed much ability and he created a good all round impression. He has judgment and a thorough knowledge of his subject. He impressed me as a man of real ability. Since he left College he has been working as a teacher in Bangalore, and I have heard excellent accounts of his work, and I was not surprised to hear that the authorities regarded him as one of the most efficient members of their staff. He bears an excellent character.

Prof. K.A. Nilakanta Sastry. (Retired Professor of Indian History and Archaeology, Madras University, formerly Principal, Sri Minakshi College)

Mr. P.G. Sathyagirinathan B.A. (Hons.) is well known to me. He was Tutor in this College for a short period early in 1922, acting for the permanent man who was on leave. Mr. Satyagiri's work as tutor gave me entire satisfaction and I have a high regard for his learning and character.

Principal J.C. Rollo:

Mr. P.G. Sathyagirinathan is a person much approved by the students and the staff of the Maharaja's and Intermediate Colleges. He is an excellent lecturer, with exceptional gifts of clear and attractive speech..... His wit would be notable anywhere, and with it is such understanding and sympathy that the devotion of students is not to be wondered at. He is Secretary for Cricket, and indefatigable in this, but this is only a fraction of his worth to the College. Dec.2, 1942.

Prof. B. Nagesa Rao.

I have known Mr. P.G. Sathyagirinathan, M.A., intimately for a fairly long time. For nearly twelve years he was one of my valued colleagues when I was Superintendent of the Intermediate Colleges at Shimoga and Mysore. I have often seen large Intermediate and Degree classes listening to his History lectures with rapt attention. He has a keen sense of humour. .....He is widely-read and has a good command of the English language, and his pleasant conversation sparkles with refined wit. He has administrative ability also and can be safely entrusted with the management of any University work which demands scrupulous honesty, industry and tact. May 12, 1944.

Prof. K. Anantharamiah.

(Formerly Superintendent, Intermediate College, Shimoga.)

I have for many years known Mr. P.G. Sathyagirinathan, a Member of the History Staff of this University. He is a Lecturer conspicuous for his ability and his wide scholarship. He has a remarkable command of correct and lucid English. While his knowledge of history is at once extensive and thorough, he has a commendable knowledge of, and interest in, English Literature. He has an unerring sense of fact; and the logical side of his mind so co-operates with the imaginative side as to enable him to draw a concrete picture of the various stages of the story of man. Thus his exposition is both luminous and accurate; and it is not seldom illumined by fine touches of humour. He is an eminently successful and popular lecturer; and is a splendid sportsman. I have very great pleasure in giving him this testimonial.

Nov. 20, 1946.

Mr. D.V. Gundappa.

I've just finished reading Mr. P.G. Satyagirinathan's little book in Kannada on England's Constitutional Development, and this letter is my cry of joy and thankfulness. My pleasure at his performance won't be full until I put it in words. It is a marvellous piece of writing - from the point of view of style as well as of substance. The comprehensiveness of his survey, his vivid generalizations and the pointed presentation of the issues of the epochs are all to my mind models for popular writing. March. 25. 1941.

Prof. V.L. D'Souza.

Mr. P.G. Sathyagirinathan is applying for the post of Professor of History. A steady and meritorious record of over 20 years in the University has given him a position of intellectual importance. He has scholarship, weight of learning and lecturing ability of a high order. He has published several research papers and taken part in important historical conferences. His works in Kannada have been highly esteemed both for their historical value and for an elegant and graceful style. Circumstances have compelled him to occupy humbler positions in the Department of History but they are circumstances over which he has had no control. The University Council recognizing his merits and despite the fact that he was no more than a lecturer has assigned him tasks of a professorial character e.g. membership of the Board of Studies in History, deputation to Historical Conferences to represent the Mysore University, chief examinership in History and finally Chairmanship of the Board of Examiners for M.A. Degree Examination in History. Thus his quality has been recognized. May his claims for Professorship receive a sympathetic consideration ! Aug. 11, 1948.

Mr. P. S. Velayudhan, M.A., is one of the most brilliant young men I have ever come across in the academic world. After taking a First Class M.A. Degree (Madras) in History & Economics, over a decade ago, he joined the staff of the Maharaja's College, Ernakulam, where he made his mark as an exceptionally efficient and popular teacher, commanding the love and respect of students and colleagues alike. The fluent speaker and facile penman that he is, both in English and in Malayalam, he has always admirably risen to the occasion whenever his literary services were demanded — as for instance, when, in the capacity of Editor of "Cochin Pamphlets" and Chairman of the "Text Books Compilation Committee," I had to seek his help in the preparation of certain volumes in the series. I am confident that he will prove a real acquisition to the Professorial Chair in History & Economics in any First Grade College.

Mr. B.S.Krishnaswamy Iyengar was a student of mine for four years. Throughout the period he kept up a high level of efficiency. His class work was characterised by method, thoroughness and efficiency and perseverance. He showed a marked aptitude for Economics and his paper work on Economic subjects showed a capacity for clear thinking, a command of the English language and also a talent for getting down to the causes of things. The Mysore University, on grounds of merit, selected him for Reasearch Scholarship. He worked on Mortgage Indebtedness of the Mysore State under my direction. As it was practically the first piece of research carried out in such a subject in India, he had to develop the method of investigation, collect the data through questionnaire and field work and present his conclusions in a form which could carry Scientific conviction. He acquitted himself with great credit and his work has been much appreciated in acadamic and Governmental circles. There is no doubt that he has the necessary mental equipment for research in the Social Sciences. He only needs an opportunity.

The Registrar,
University of Mysore,
MYSORE.

Sir,

Ref: Your advertisement for the Post of a Professor of History.

In reply to the above advertisement I wish to put forward my candidature for the same.

I was born on 5th December 1919, and belong to a respectable Parsee family.

Qualifications:-

(a) I passed my B.A. with 1st Class Honours in History from the University of Bombay in 1941. I obtained 70% marks in my Honours papers.

(b) After my graduation I was appointed a Fellow in the D.J.Sind College, Karachi, for two years. In 1943 I was continued as an Honorary Fellow.

(c) During the period of my Fellowship I did research for three years on problems connected with foreign Military Adventures in South India. I obtained my Doctorate from the same Univerity in 1945 with a thesis dealing with the Exploits of a Party of French Adventurers in the service of Hyderabad and Mysore during the latter part of the 18th Century. The title of my Thesis was "The Swiss Party in the Duccan". The Thesis was well commented upon by Dewan Bahadur C.S.Shriniwasachari M.A.Retired Dean of the Faculty of Arts, Annamalai University.

Prizes:-

At my Intermediate Arts Examination I won the Edulji Dinshaw Medal for standing first in Logic from the D.J.Sind College, Karachi and the Lilaram Gidumal Prize for a similar distinction in Economic & Civics.

Teaching Experience:.

(a) As a fellow I engaged the Graduate Classes in History.

(b) In December 1944, I was appointed an Honorary Lecturer in History in the same College for one term and engaged the B.A. & M.A. Classes in Indian History.

(c) In June 1946, I was taken up as a Professor of History in the Rajaram College Kolahpur, and served there for two years in a leave vacancy. I lectured in Civics to the Intermediate Arts Classes and in European Roman and English Histories to the Graduate Classes.

Research:

I did research for three years in connection with the preparation of my Ph.D. Thesis. I worked in the various Libraries of Mysore and Bangaloro for six months.
At the last session of the Indian History Congress, I read a Paper on the career of Bishop Noronha, a Portugese in the service of Hyder Ali.

I am interested in the History of Mysore. My Thesis for the Ph.D. dealt with one phase of it. Facilities for research in my field did not exist at Kolhapur with the result that I could do little, though I would have loved to do more. Apost in your University will enable me to do further research in my field. Given an opportunity I feel confident of proving my abilities both as a teacher and as a research worker. Thanking you,

I have the Honour to remain,
Sir,
Yours faithfully,

C.N.Wadia

Copies of Testimonials

The Late Dr.H.M.Gurbaxani,M.A.,Ph.D.(Lond).,J.P., Principal of the D.J.Sind College,Karachi:-

"The undersigned has nothing but praise for the ability and character of Dr.C.N.Wadia, and has much pleasure in to commend his claims for the post applied for. Dr.Wadia has been engaging the B.A.(Hons) and M.A. students in certain papers and has won the esteem and affection of both his students and colleagues. Prof. N.S.Adhikari, Professor of English, Rajaram College, Kolhapur:-

" I have great pleasure in saying that Dr.C.N.Wadia ,B.A., Ph.D., Professor of History in the Rajaram College, was a friend and colleague of mine for all the time that he was here. During this period I came into close contact with him and I have no hesitation in saying that, as a friend , I knew of none who was more warm-hearted and obliging than he. He won the love of professors & students alike by the affability of his manners and his open-hearted behaviour. His lectures as a Professor , were very illuminating and interesting both in respect of matter and method, and they showed the extensiveness and accuracy of his information, his critical acumen and his ability to present dry matter in an interesting way.

"Scholarly in thought and courteous in bearing, Dr.Wadia was an asset and I feel that in losing him the department and the College have lost a good hand.

"I wish him success".

Prof.S.D.Vankudre, Professor of History and Economics,Rajaram Colleg

"Dr.C.N.Wadia is a young scholar of rare distinction. His Ph.D. thesis bears ample testimony to his intellectual abilities and capacity of sustained work as a research student. As a piece of historical research, it is,indeed, a remarkable document, deserving of as wide a publicity as possible.

"It has been my good fortune to work with him as one of my colleagues in the History and Economics department of my College for about two years now. Both as a colleague and as a friend, I have nothing but praise for him. As a teacher he has given entire satisfaction to his students, and in particular, the B.A. History (hons) students speak very highly of him both as a teacher and as a scholar."

May 12,1948.

Dr.Adrian Duarte,M.A.,D.Litt., Professor of History, D.J.Sind College,Karachi; and my post-graduate guide:-

"Dr.C.N.Wadia graduated B.A. first class History Honors in 1941. He then registered for the Ph.D. of the Bombay University with a th theme from French History in Indda as the subject for his thesis. He finished his thesis in good time and secured the doctorate of the university in 1945. His external referee wrote in very appreciative and even laudatory terms of Dr.Wadia's thesis.

"I have known Dr.Wadia very intimately since 1941. He is a thorough and a conscientious worker, capable of immense industry. His reading on matters historical is very extensive. He is a scholar by habit and temperament.

" Dr.Wadia was associated with the teaching of History for one term in the D.J-Sind College and proved himself a conscientious, capable and interesting teacher,who won the esteem and respect of both his colleagues and his students. He would be an undoubted acquisition on the staff of any First Grade College in Indda. He is a person of sterling character. I sincerely wish him what he thoroughly deserves - a very successful career in the profession of his choice, which I know is the teaching profession.
